

Greg Graham,
Comptroller
Chippewas of the Thames First Nation

Biography

Greg joined COTTFN in January 2017 as the Comptroller, who is responsible for the accounting and auditing functions of the Finance Department. In addition to developing the annual budget, the Comptroller produces regular departmental reporting to ensure performance aligns with budget targets. He is also responsible for investigating new sources of revenue and implementing cost savings.

Prior to joining COTTFN, Greg worked for London Health Sciences Centre and TD Bank. He has held several roles in Finance, Administration and Quality Assurance over the past twenty years.

Outside of work, Greg lives in St. Thomas with his wife, Tina, and three children.
